Section 4.2: Design Guidelines

Design guidelines shall be adopted by the Association which shall establish the criteria, in addition to that specifically provided herein, to be used by the Design Review Committee to ascertain the acceptability of proposed development of individual Lots.

Section 4.3: Set Back Lines

Set back lines and building heights have been established within each Lot (as provided in 4.9) to identify areas available for location of the primary structure in order to protect view corridors, vegetation, and maintain ridge lines and separation between structures. Such set back lines may be depicted as a supplement to the plat.

Section 4.4: Primary Structure

The only primary structure that may be placed on the residential Lots is a private, single-family dwelling. No residential structure shall be erected on any part of the Property which is not compatible with the character, quality and amenities associated with the neighborhood and approved in writing by the Design Review Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Declaration.

the space in the garage. Approval for a rock driveway must be obtained from the Design Review Committee. If a residence of more than one story is constructed, then the main floor shall have not less than 1500 square feet of floor area devoted to living space.

Section 4.11: Resubdivision of Lots

No Lot shall be resubdivided into smaller lots nor conveyed or encumbered in any less than full original dimensions as originally conveyed by Declarant, except in the case of dedication or conveyance of portions of a Lot for public utilities on joint access, in which case the remaining portion of the Lot shall be treated as a whole Lot.

Section 4.12: Temporary Structure

No temporary house, trailer, garage, temporary outbuilding or similar structure shall be constructed on any part of the Property and no residence on any Lot shall be occupied in any manner at any time prior to its being fully completed in accordance with approved plans. Nor shall any residence when completed be in any manner occupied until there is compliance with all requirements, conditions, covenants and restrictions herein set forth, provided however, that during the actual construction or alteration of a building on any Lot, reasonable and necessary temporary buildings or trailers for storage of materials may be erected and maintained by the person doing such work. Such temporary storage buildings shall be removed upon completion the space in the garage. Approval for a rock driveway must be obtained from the Design Review Committee. If a residence of more than one story is constructed, then the main floor shall have not less than 1500 square feet of floor area devoted to living space.

Section 4.11: Resubdivision of Lots

No Lot shall be resubdivided into smaller lots nor conveyed or encumbered in any less than full original dimensions as originally conveyed by Declarantdepicted on the Plat drawings titled in Wissler Ranch Filings 1, 2, 3, and 4, except in the case of dedication or conveyance of portions of a Lot for public utilities on joint access, in which case the remaining portion of the Lot shall be treated as a whole Lot.

Section 4.12: Temporary Structure

No temporary house, trailer, garage, temporary outbuilding or similar structure shall be constructed on any part of the Property and no residence on any Lot shall be occupied in any manner at any time prior to its being fully completed in accordance with approved plans. Nor shall any residence when completed be in any manner occupied until there is compliance with all requirements, conditions, covenants and restrictions herein set forth, provided however, that during the actual construction or alteration of a building on any Lot, reasonable and necessary temporary buildings or trailers for storage of materials may be erected and maintained by the person doing such work. A release of the beneficiary's deed of trust shall operate to revoke such proxy herein; nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve a Lot Owner as mortgagor of his or her duties and obligations as an Owner or to impose upon the beneficiary of the deed of trust the duties and obligations of an Owner.

Section 7.16: Assessment Reserves

The Association or the managing agent may require an Owner to deposit with the Association, within thirty days of the date of notice to such effect, up to one-third of the amount of the estimated annual assessments, without interest, which sum shall be held by the managing agent or the Association as a reserve to be used for paying such Owner's annual assessment and for working capital. Such an advance payment shall not relieve an Owner from making the regular payments of any assessments as the same comes due. On the sale of a Lot, the Owner thereof shall be entitled to credit from the grantee for any unused portion thereof.

Section 7.17: Subordination of Lien to First Mortgagee

The lien for any Assessment provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of a First Mortgage recorded before the delinquent Assessment was due. Sale or transfer of any Lot shall not affect the lien for said Assessment except that sale or transfer of any Lot pursuant to foreclosure of any such First Mortgage, or any proceeding in lieu thereof, including deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall extinguish the lien of Assessment which became due prior to any acquisition of title to such Lot by the First Mortgagee pursuant to any such sale or transfer, or foreclosure, of any proceeding in lieu thereof including, without limitation, any deed in lieu of foreclosure. No such sale, transfer, foreclosure, or any above-described proceeding in lieu thereof, shall relieve any Lot from liability for any Assessment becoming due after such acquisition of title, nor from the lien thereof, nor the personal liability of the Owner of such Lot for assessments due during the period of his ownership.
